

Exercises

→ Grammar book p. 150-152

Les adverbes de fréquence
se placent généralement
avant le verbe.

1 Remets les adverbes à leur place :

- a) I make my bed. (never)
 b) My dad clears the table. (often)
 c) My sister watches television after school. (always)
 d) Do you wash your car? (often)
 e) Does he help you with your homework? (sometimes)

2 Jill et Jack se disputent avant le dîner, mais leur dispute est bizarre sans les adverbes. Recopie les phrases en gras en ajoutant les adverbes illustrés.

Dad: Jill, come and set the table please!

Jill: But Dad! It's Jack's turn. He sets the table.

Dad: OK, OK. Jack, it's your turn to set the table.

Jack: What! I clear the table, it's my job and Gill sets the table, it's her job.

Jill: That's not true. You clear the table! Dad clears it and you go and play on your computer.

Dad: Ah! That's not true! Jack clears the table, but not very often.
 So Jack, be a good boy and set the table. And stop grumbling.

3 À partir des éléments en désordre, rédige des questions pour un sondage dans le journal de ton collègue. Ajoute les majuscules.

- a) you / do / arrive / sometimes / late for school / ?
 b) often / your homework / you / do / forget / ?
 c) always / your English lessons / you / learn / do / ?
 d) play / do / you / on the computer / often / ?
 e) you / do / sometimes / watch television / after dinner / ?

4 Choisis entre a, an, \emptyset ou the.

- a) Look! In the tree! It's ... koala!
 b) I love ... koalas. They are adorable!
 c) My cousin is ... architect.
 d) My sister is ... doctor.
 e) Where's ... teacher? – Behind you!

5 Kirsty fait des tas de choses en une journée ! Trouve un maximum de verbes en trois minutes. L'élève qui en aura trouvé le plus sera déclaré champion des verbes !

She reads a book.

She brushes her teeth.

Ordre des mots dans les questions
et la place de l'adverbe :

Do you always do your exercises?
 Adv. S. Adv. V.

Attention :

a : suivi d'un son-consonne
an : suivi d'un son-voyelle

The Word Corner

Mémoire ton vocabulaire
grâce aux fiches
et activités :
"My routine"

CD-ROM