

Exercises

→ Grammar book p. 157-158

- 1 There is ou there are ? Rédige la description d'une maison en utilisant les éléments suivants :
- a kitchen and a living room downstairs - three bedrooms upstairs - a large garage - some lovely flowers in the garden
- 2 Louise explique à son ami comment se rendre chez elle. Complète son explication à l'aide de there is, there isn't, there are, there aren't.
- a) Now, listen very carefully because ... any signs.
b) In the village, ... a school on your left. Turn left at the school.
c) Then ... some shops. Turn right after the shops and my house is on the left.
d) ... a number on my house, but ... a big red letter box in the garden. OK?

There is + singulier
There are + pluriel

- 3 Pose des questions à propos d'une maison qui correspondraient aux réponses suivantes :
- a) There is one. d) Yes, there is one.
b) There are two. e) No, there aren't.
c) No, there isn't.

Pour interroger sur le nombre :
How many + nom pluriel +
are + there?

- 4 Bertie et sa maman préparent un pique-nique. Recopie les phrases incomplètes en ajoutant some ou any.

Mum: What do you need for your picnic tomorrow?

Bertie: We need ... sandwiches and crisps.

Mum: Have you got ... paper plates?

Bertie: No, we don't need ... plates, mum, but we need ... paper cups.
Have you got ... bottles of soda?

Mum: Yes, there are 2 bottles in the fridge.

Bertie: And biscuits?

Mum: No, there aren't ... biscuits in the cupboard.

Bertie: That's OK, I can make ... cakes this afternoon.

- Are there any apples?
- He hasn't got any pears.
- We've got some cakes.

- 5 Sharon achète des perles (beads). Réécris son dialogue avec la vendeuse en évitant les répétitions.

Assistant: Can I help you?

Sharon: Yes, I want some yellow beads, please.

Assistant: Big beads or small beads?

Sharon: Small beads. They are for a bracelet.

Assistant: How many do you want?

Sharon: Four please, and I'd like a black bead too.

Assistant: Do you like this bead?

Sharon: Wow, it's beautiful. How much is it? ...

Le pronom one(s) après un adjectif permet de ne pas répéter le nom.

- 6 Écris le nom de chaque pièce puis énumère tous les meubles et objets que l'on peut y trouver. Trouve un maximum de mots !

The Word Corner
Mémorise ton vocabulaire
grâce aux fiches
et activités :
"My house"

